

Graduate Programs

SUNY Potsdam offers courses and programs in the traditional liberal arts disciplines in the humanities, science, fine arts and performing arts. The College also focuses on the student's need for the best possible preparation for specific professional and vocational goals.

SUNY Potsdam's graduate programs seek to encourage academic achievement and to provide each student with a sense of personal and social responsibility. SUNY Potsdam grants graduate degrees at the master's level with programs in mathematics, English, music and education .

School of Arts and Sciences

Master of Arts (MA)	See page
English and Communication.....	13
Mathematics	14
Four-year BA/MA Degree Program in Mathematics	15

The Crane School of Music

Master of Music (MM)	See page
Composition	19
Music Education	19
Performance	20

School of Education and Professional Studies

Master of Science in Education (MSED)*	See page
Curriculum and Instruction	24
Information and Communication Technology	26
Literacy	30
Adolescence Education (Grades 7–12)
English	32
Mathematics.....	32
Social Studies.....	33
Special Education	34

* The MSED programs are primarily geared for candidates who already hold a teaching credential. For these candidates, the completion of an MSED program will assist with completing the academic requirements needed for New York State professional certification. Some MSED programs will allow candidates to earn certification in an additional area (Information and Communication Technology, Literacy, Special Education). Candidates seeking to earn a master's degree not linked to teacher certification may pursue three of the five MSED Information and Communication Technology programs.

Master of Science in Teaching (MST)	See page
Childhood Education (Grades 1–6)	36
Adolescence Education (Grades 7–12)
English	37
Mathematics (with Grades 5–6 extension)	38
Science (biology, chemistry, earth science or physics).....	39
Social Studies (with Grades 5–6 extension)	41

 The MST programs prepare candidates holding a baccalaureate degree in an academic area other than education to become certified to teach.