In the News
Any families concerned about the spread of Enterovirus D68 in New York State should visit www.cdc.gov/non-polio-enterovirus
Also, there is an excellent fact sheet available at www.co.st-lawrence.ny.us from the Department of Public Health. If you have more questions, call St. Lawrence County Public Health at 386-2325 or consult a physician.

This is the third year, that preschool and school age children at SPCCC will be counted among the millions of people across America participating in the Jumpstart Read for the Record Campaign.
Bunny Cakes by Rosemary Wells has been selected for the spotlight. We plan to read it in English, Spanish and American Sign Language on Tuesday, October 21st.
For a follow-up activity, the classrooms will be able to use a small puppet theatre to retell the story of brother Max and sister Ruby to themselves and friends.

Keep Smiling… 😊
You might spot a bumper sticker like this one:
“The past, present and future walked into a room. It was tense.”

SECOND REMINDER:
We will be closed on Columbus Day, Monday, October 13th, for Staff Development. Please arrange for alternate childcare - Thank You 😊

The Early Childhood Fall Conference, sponsored by the St. Lawrence Child Care Council, will be held at the Miller Campus Center, SUNY Canton, on Saturday, October 18th from 8:15 am to 4:00 pm.
This year’s theme is “Inspire, Empower, Succeed”. The registration fee is $75.00 for ECE Professionals or $35.00 for Full-Time Students as well as Parents and includes lunch. The keynote speaker will be Jeanine Fitzgerald, author of The Dance of Interaction and creator of Education with Insight, a national training program. Attend your choice of workshops, network and visit vendor booths. See Lori Moulton for registration materials.
