MASTER OF MUSIC, MUSIC PERFORMANCE

Bachelor’s Degree Requirements: Applicants must have earned a baccalaureate degree in music from an accredited college or university.

GPA Requirements: Applicants must have earned a minimum undergraduate grade point average of 3.0, as well as a minimum undergraduate core music grade point average of 3.0.

If you are applying for a graduate assistantship and/or scholarship, the application deadline is March 2nd for Fall admissions. All materials must be received by that date, including any audition videos; live auditions must have been completed by our final audition day. For all other students, the deadline for Fall admission is May 1st, and the deadline for Spring admission is November 15th. International students will not be accepted to begin in the Spring semester except under unusual circumstances. We encourage international students to apply to start in a fall semester.

Dual Master of Music degrees in both performance and music education are also possible for qualified students.
