Master of Music in Music Education Application Checklist 2015-2016

These materials should be sent to the SUNY Potsdam Center for Graduate Studies

- Graduate application (completed online or sent to the SUNY Potsdam Center for Graduate Studies)
- All official college transcripts
- GRE scores (unless student is applying for the non-certification program)
- Letter of intent
- Writing sample (college-level paper)
- Teaching video or audition (see below regarding auditions; this requirement is waived for graduates of Crane)
- Two letters of recommendation
- $50 application fee
- International students must also provide:
  - Certification of finances
  - TOFEL (or other language test) scores if non-native English speaking

Audition instructions (only required if student is not able to submit a teaching video)

- Register for an audition via the Crane School of Music website no later than two weeks prior to the requested audition date. Note that certain instruments can only audition on certain dates and/or locations.
- If requesting a video audition instead of an in-person audition, follow the instructions on requesting a video audition found on the Audition Information page. Begin by registering for an on-campus audition.
- If you have questions about audition materials, request additional information from the Crane Graduate Office.

It is highly recommended students apply for SUNY Potsdam graduate scholarships and other financial aid. No applications are required for the Crane Scholarships and Music Assistantships.

Deadlines:

- Fall admission, wishing to be considered for a graduate assistantship and/or music scholarship: March 2nd, including completion of the audition. See Audition instructions above regarding the deadline to audition. Final audition day is February 27, 2016
- Fall and Summer admission: May 1st.
- Spring admission: November 15th for all materials except the audition; December 12, 2015 for the audition (if required).
