Intercultural Educator Concentration within MSEd Curriculum and Instruction

With rapid internationalization, there is an increase in intercultural schools, classrooms, events, communities, and businesses. Individuals with the ability to navigate and lead within these settings smoothly will be in increased demand. These courses will enable the graduate student to begin to develop a greater understanding of the normality of diversity in the lives of all humans.

*The courses in this program include:
• Diversity and Advocacy in Education
• Literacy and Language for Diverse Learners
• Teaching English Language Learners in the Mainstream Classroom
• Education, Language and Culture

*Coursework subject to change and changes in availability per semester.
