Abstract: The seminar will focus on concepts as the most basic of the three major components of the cognitive domain: concepts, facts and generalizations. The “concept of concept.” Definitions, examples, and usefulness. On learning concepts and therefore the teaching of them.