Wednesday, April 27th, 2016, Noon

300 Satterlee Hall

Mr. Donald Straight
Department of Secondary Education

Creative Partnership Creation: An Unusual Opportunity with a Regional School District

Abstract: School partnerships, and implementation of the Professional Development School (PDS) model, have been challenged in recent years by nearly continuous changes at all levels, in both P-12 education and teacher preparation at institutions of higher education. New ways of making and maintaining these connections, even if completely unconventional, should be considered!