Wednesday, September 24th, 2014, Noon

300 Satterlee Hall

Dr. Anjali Misra
Special and Inclusive Education

A Tale of Three Cities: My Sabbatical Experience

Abstract: I will share what I learned during my travels to Europe as a visiting professor, using photographs of people, sights, nature, and educational institutions. The differences in educational and special educational services will be highlighted within the context of social, political, economic, cultural, and belief systems that impact infrastructure, delivery, and content of teaching and learning.