ADDITIONAL GUIDELINES FOR SPORTS CLUBS

ARTICLE I – MAIN GUIDELINES

Section 1. Any organization related to athletics must also follow the “Financial Policies and Procedures.”

Section 2. Additional Guidelines for Sports Clubs:

A. All sports clubs must have a constitution that is accepted by the Student Government Association. Before approval is granted, a sport club must:

1. Be open to any SUNY Potsdam student who is an active participant and follows the club’s rules;

2. Have no discrimination on the basis of race, politics, religion, age or athletic ability;

3. Submit its schedule, in advance of the season, to the Athletic office and/or to the Intramural office;

4. The club will have privileges of the athletic training facilities, at the discretion of the athletic trainer;

5. Coordinate its facilities needs with the Office of Operations at Maxcy Hall in keeping with the priority system of that office;

6. Have a coach who will accompany all sports clubs on trips and be responsible for all practices.

ARTICLE II – SPORTS CLUBS

Section 1. Definition:

A. The sport club program is designed to serve individual interests in different sports and recreational activities. These interests can be competitive, recreational, or instructional in nature, as clubs may represent the college in intercollegiate competition or conduct in intra-club activities such as practice, instruction, social and tournament play;

B. A sport club is a group of Student Activity fee-paying individuals voluntarily organized for the purpose of furthering their common interests in an activity through participation and competition. Sport clubs are strictly voluntary;

C. The clubs are meant to be a learning experience for the members through their involvement in fund-raising, public relations, organization, administration, budgeting and scheduling, as well as the development of skills in their particular sport. Involvement in a group and team situation helps enhance the student’s overall education while living in the college setting;

D. Clubs may vary in focus and programming since the members are active participants in the leadership, responsibility, and decision making processes of club activities;

ARTICLE III – UNIVERSITY RECOGNITION

Section 1. Policies and Procedures:

A. A need exists to develop a sound procedure for setting up a constructive working constitution (see appendix);

B. Eligibility to participate in a club should be open to every activity fee paying student;

C. Eligibility to compete with a club should be open to all individuals who were practicing and a part of the club;

D. Rosters should be kept and maintained by all sports clubs. They should be updated and reviewed each semester. The roster file should be kept in the SGA office.

Section 2. Safety and Liability (The following procedures are recommended):

A. A review of first aid procedures with supervisory staff prior to each season;

B. All programs should be evaluated for safety after completion, with recommended changes being implemented the next year, if possible;

C. Rule changes should be made prior to each activity to ensure safe participation;

D. If a waiver is used, it should specifically mention the hazards of the activity;
E. Participants should be directed to obtain or be responsible for their own health/medical insurance;

F. A file of injuries should be maintained with documentation of all pertinent facts. This should be used to determine the types and extent of injuries;

G. If possible, CRS should be present at sports which have the greatest potential for severe injuries;

H. Agreement and release form: All sport club members should sign a waiver or agreement and release form (see Appendix);

I. All coaches should be trained, and if possible, hold a certificate in their sport.

Section 3. Travel Concerns:

A. The club will comply with the transportation policies as set by SGA.

Section 4. Role of Coach, Officers and Advisor:

A. Because of the numbers and varieties of recreational activities, the role of coach and advisor is becoming even more important in the administration of the sport club program. The duties assumed by the sport club and its officers include administering funding, securing facilities, scheduling contests, arranging for travel, etc;

B. Several suggestions for the breakdown of responsibilities between club officers, the coach, and the advisor follow:

C. Coach:

1. Develop and improve skills;

2. Assist club officers in scheduling games;

3. Coordinate practices and game schedules;

4. Develop and employ safety procedures;
