SCHOOL OF EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

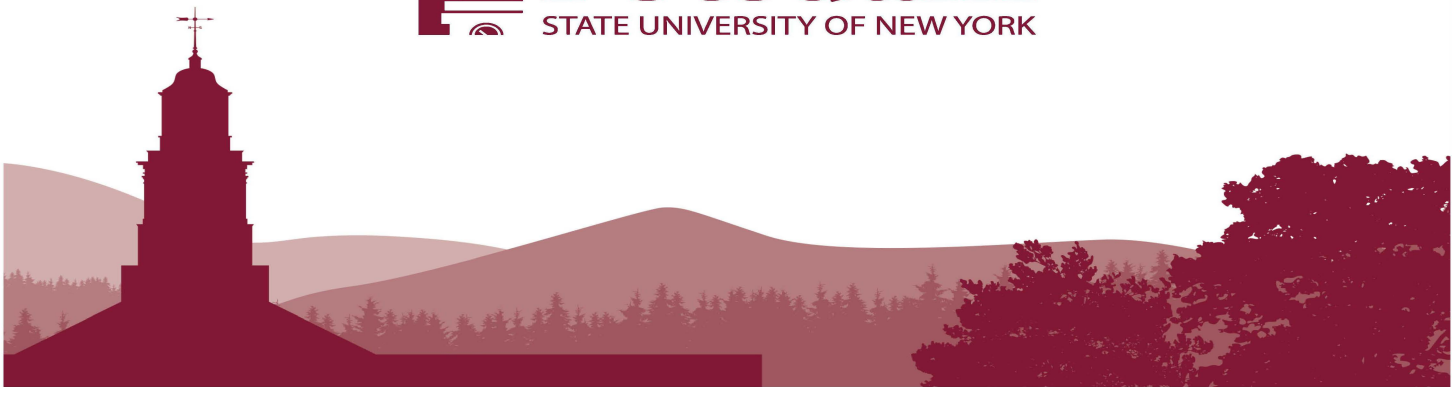
Disciplined Inquiry in Education Seminar Series

February 25, 2026/Noon-1:00 p.m.

Literacy Center Balcony

Cary Boles, Sheard Literacy Center, Director, SOE&PS, SUNY Potsdam
Karen Caldwell, Dept of Advanced Studies in Education, SOE&PS, SUNY Potsdam
Lynn Gaffney, Asst Superintendent for Instruction,Watertown School District
Johnathan Hirschey, St Lawrence-Lewis BOCES, Director of Instructional Resources
Natalie Hurley, Instructional Technology Specialist, NYS Master Teacher (Math), Indian River School District

A Science of Learning Initiative – Early, Exploratory Efforts and Applications

Abstract. A group of educators and administrators in the region are embarking on a science of learning initiative. In this session, they will share their efforts and experiences exploring and applying the science of learning in five different contexts (Dyslexia and the Science of Reading, Undergraduate (WAYS) and Online Graduate Courses, District-wide Instructional Leadership, BOCES, Instructional Coaching and the Mathematics Classroom).


Potsdam
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK