Jazz Studies Minor

Professor Clark Hunt, Program Director
huntcn@potsdam.edu

As a Crane student, you will have the opportunity to develop a diverse and versatile musical background. The Jazz Studies area at Crane offers you the opportunity to grow as a musician through both performance and classroom experiences.

The Jazz Studies Minor provides students with guided experiences in improvisation, performance, history, arranging and pedagogy. This program is a valuable addition to any existing degree program in The Crane School of Music. Students completing the Jazz Studies Minor have proved themselves as highly effective instrumental jazz teachers in the public schools, as successful students in leading graduate level Jazz Studies degree programs and have gone on to explore careers as performers.

The Jazz Studies Minor is open to any student who is accepted for any degree program at The Crane School of Music. In special circumstances, students outside The Crane School of Music may be accepted for study in the Jazz Studies Minor.

Wynton Marsalis performs with Crane students.
