

Did You Remember?

To Turn Off Your Power Strip?

NYSERDA (New York State Energy Research and Development Authority) recommends users plug computers, monitors, task lights, individual printers, and speakers into a power strip and turn off the power strip when leaving their work area for extended periods.

Computing & Technology Services

