NOTES:

¹ Different instruments will have somewhat different ensemble requirements. Details about ensemble requirements can be found in the Crane Undergraduate Student Handbook (in section V). Additionally, students for whom piano is their primary instrument do not take Keyboard I and II (MUCC 111 & 112).

² The exact sequence of Composition Studio can vary from what is shown. See page 3 for all of the studio requirements. Note also that composition students are required to attend Composition Studio Class every semester as part of Composition Studio.

³ These courses can be taken either semester listed but should be taken in one of the semesters indicated in order to complete the degree requirements in the prescribed time.

⁴ See page 4 for detailed information, but the required non-music courses are:

- General Education courses that must be taken outside of music, and
- non-music liberal arts electives

⁵ See page 3 for a detailed list of required Upper Division courses.

⁷ These courses are pre-registered and should appear on the student's schedule prior to the schedule being released.
