BYLAWS OF THE ASSEMBLY

ARTICLE I – LEGISLATION

Section 1. Bills

A. Bills shall have, as their object, the enactment, amendment, or repeal of a statute, and are the sole means by which a law may be promulgated. Bills establish policy for the Association;

B. Any member of the Assembly or Executive Board may introduce Bills. Bills are to be considered a main motion, requiring a second to be brought to the floor;

C. Drafts of Bills shall be filed with the Clerk of the Association not later than close of business two (2) days prior to the meeting at which it is to be introduced. The signature and district of their introducer shall accompany all Bills;

1. Bills shall be prepared in a uniform manner and shall be numbered for the purposes of identification and reference. The Clerk of the Association shall administer this process;

2. Bills shall be prefaced by the enactment clause: “The Student Government Association of the State University of New York at Potsdam, as represented in the Assembly and the Senate, does hereby enact as follows:”

D. Upon the introduction of a Bill, it shall be discussed and may be referred to an appropriate committee for review. The Assembly shall not call any Bill to question upon its first reading except in extraordinary circumstances;

1. The committee to which a Bill has been referred shall make such inquiries as may be necessary to ascertain the facts and circumstances that bear upon the Bill’s propriety. A report, which may or may not include a recommendation from the committee or branch to which a Bill has been referred, shall be required in order for the Bill to be voted upon. Once a report has been made, the Assembly, reserves the right to vote on the bill, table it, or refer it back to committee(s) for further investigation;

2. All bills presented in the Assembly must be brought back to each club to determine the representative’s vote;
3. Votes shall be by show of hands, by roll call, or yea/nay as provided for in Robert's Rules of Order, 12th Edition Newly Revised (or subsequent document). All votes shall be noted in the minutes of the meeting at which it was taken;

4. All Monetary Bills involving the assessment, allocation, or disbursement of funds shall be subject to the agreement of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Assembly present and voting. All other Bills shall require a simple majority for passage;

5. Under extraordinary circumstances and only by the discretion of the Vice President and Treasurer, a bill may be labelled “Immediate Attention”, thus permitting the Assembly to suspend the normal tabling procedures and vote on the measure at its first reading;

   a. The Vice President and Treasurer must state their reasons for labelling a Bill Immediate Attention.

   b. Objections to Immediate Attention are in order, and must be upheld by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those members present and voting.

       1. If such a motion is sustained, the bill shall be considered under Article I, Sec. 1.D.1.

   c. If a member of the Assembly moves to label a Bill Immediate Attention, a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the branch in which the motion was made is necessary for passage;

6. Bills involving the expenditure of funds to be taken from Supplemental, Contingency, or Equipment Replacement Fund (ERF) lines may be introduced by the Treasurer, and shall include the following information:

   a. Total amount of money requested, itemized where possible;

   b. Rationale for request;

   c. Any relevant additional information

E. The Clerk of the Association shall record the vote on each Bill, along with the date of passage or failure. The bill shall be presented to the Vice President and Treasurer, who shall in turn sign the Bill, certifying its accuracy. Once the bill has passed in the Assembly, the Clerk of the Association shall then submit the Bill to the President of the Association, who shall either accept or reject the Bill in accordance with the Constitution.

1. A veto may be overturned by a motion agreed to by two-thirds (2/3) of the Assembly at their next respective meetings.

F. If the Funding Request has been granted, the representative of the bill must make an appointment with the Student Government Association Treasurer within two weeks, so the necessary arrangements are made for the dispersal of funds.

Section 2. Resolutions

A. Resolutions shall have as their object the expression of the intent or opinion of the Assembly;

B. Only members of the Assembly or the Chief Justice of the Student Supreme Court may introduce a Resolution. It is highly recommended, the proposer meet with the Executive Board in which they shall offer advice in regards to the Resolution and shall have no authority in accepting nor rejecting the document. All Resolutions must be labelled with the date of introduction, have at least two (2) sponsors, and are to be considered main motions, requiring a second to be brought to the floor;

C. Resolutions shall be filed in accordance with those procedures used for Bills;

D. Resolutions shall be debated and voted upon in the same manner as a Bill, with the exclusion of the right to be labelled “Immediate Attention.”

E. All Resolutions shall include the enactment clause: “We, the Assembly of the Student Government Association of the State University of New York at Potsdam do hereby resolve:”

F. Resolutions are not subject to veto by the President of the Association;

ARTICLE II – SGA COMMITTEES

Section 1. Committees
A. All committees, with the exception of Financial Review Board (FRB) and Budget Committee shall be open to all of the SUNY Potsdam student body;

B. The Vice President shall serve as initial chair of all SGA Committees, yet may appoint a chair from within the committee by the third regular meeting of said committee, with the exceptions of:

   a. Budget, which shall be co-chaired by the Treasurer and the Comptroller;

   b. The FRB shall be chaired by the Treasurer in the Fall semester and chaired by comptroller in the Spring;

   c. Public Relations, which shall be chaired by the Comptroller;

   d. And Election, which shall be chaired by the Vice President;

       i. In the event the Vice-President intends to run for office, is nominated and accepts, they shall appoint a chair from the Representative Branch.

C. The Vice President shall appoint a vice-chair for all standing and ad hoc committees of SGA. Any Executive Board member or Assembly member may serve as the vice chair. The vice chair shall:

   a. Record the attendance at every meeting;

   b. Take minutes to be submitted to the clerk of the Association no later than forty-eight (48) hours after the adjournment of the committee;

   c. Assist the chair in any duties as directed by the chair of the committee;

D. The Vice President shall have the right to review the performance of all elected appointed chairs and vice-chairs, and remove chairs or vice-chairs not performing their duties to the Vice Presidents’ expectations. Appeals are to be made in writing to the President of the Association. Removal may be overturned by a majority vote of the Assembly and the Senate, respectively.

E. Committees are required for all organizational representatives. Failure to attend will result in one (1) unexcused absence.

   a. Each organizational representative must attend at least one (1) SGA committee or committee meeting as appointed by the President of the Association.

   b. The President of the Association has the jurisdiction to decide what non-SGA committees may count towards this requirement.

   c. If the organizational representative cannot attend the meeting, the organization may send an alternate to represent said organization.
Section 2. SGA Committee Descriptions

A. Budget Committee:
   1. Shall consist of Seven Assembly Representatives, four (4) members of the FRB and three (3) members of the general Assembly. This committee is charged with preparing an annual budget for the following academic year each Spring, verifying the accuracy and propriety of Summer expenditures if any are made by the Executive board, and recommending guidelines for the budget process to the Treasurer;
      i. Please see Article IV Section 1 of the SGA Financial Policies and Procedures for a comprehensive list of members.
